William Perl was observed to leave his residence at 104 East 38th Street, New York City and walk to the Pennsylvania Railroad Station and enter the entrance located at 32nd Street and 1st Avenue, New York City.

11 PM

Perl was observed meeting an unknown white man in the vicinity of the Information Center. Thereafter Perl and this man proceeded to the Savarins Restaurant in the Pennar RR Station, where they were observed eating and reviewing some papers.

Perl and the unknown man were observed departing from the Savarins Restaurant and walking to the main waiting area at the Station, where they remained for approximately 20 minutes. At 11:40 A.M. there was an announcement over the station PA system to the effect that the Philadelphia local train scheduled for 11:40 A.M. was now being loaded. The unknown, man-sized with the passengers, motioned to board the train at the south end of the station. He led the passengers down the stairs. This occurred at 11:45 A.M. on 3rd St. of No. Phila. Pediobserved entering the building, 1014 East 3rd St., on 11-10-71.
